Programme Guide

Who is managing the Calls from the Erasmus+ Programme Guide?

The European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA)

- At European level, the European Commission's European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) is responsible for the implementation of a number of actions of the Erasmus+ Programme.
- The Executive Agency is in charge of the complete life-cycle management of these projects, from the promotion of the Programme, the analysis of the grant requests, the monitoring of projects on the spot, up to the dissemination of the project and Programme results.

Funding and Tender Opportunity Portal: <https://ec.europa.eu/info/funding-tenders/opportunities/portal/screen/home>.

The National Agencies

- EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme has appointed one or more National Agencies
- These National Agencies promote and implement the Programme at national level and act as the link between the European Commission and participating organisations at local, regional and national level.

The national Agencies are managing the International credit mobility action

National Erasmus+ Offices (NEOs)

Present in some third countries not associated to the Programme :

Western Balkans, Eastern and Southern Mediterranean countries, Russia and Central Asia.

The NEOs assist the Commission, the Executive Agency and the local authorities in the implementation of the Erasmus+ Programme.

They are the focal point in these countries for their stakeholders involved in the Erasmus+ Programme in the area of higher education, vocational education and training, youth and sports.
